

I feel this issue should have wider coverage and debate prior to the vote. I am opposed to the progressive narrowing of ownership of the media in this country. This is especially dangerous in a rural area like the one in which I live and in a state as geographically large as Texas where it is difficult to obtain access to alternate opinions and ideas.